Itinerary

Day 1

Tour to Luxor from Cairo

Your Luxor day tour from Cairo begins with an early morning transfer from your Cairo hotel to Cairo International Airport. After taking the plane to Luxor, meet your highly trained Egyptologist tour guide at the airport for a Cairo day tour of Luxor's ancient wonders as part of your unforgettable Egypt tour.

Temple of Karnak

Your first visit is to the Temple of Karnak, the largest temple complex and the most important religious site during the time of Egypt's New Kingdom. The sunlight streaming through the Hypostyle Hall's numerous columns and the actual dreaming were unthinkable; the walls were embossed with artistic designs, and the waters of the sacred lake shimmered. Your Egypt tour guide will tell you about the historical and religious significance of this amazing site, focused on Amun, Mut, and Khonsu.

Valley of the Kings

Continue to Luxor for a visit to the Valley of the Kings; this vast necropolis housed the next Pharaohs from the 18th to 20th dynasties. Enter the tombs of ancient rulers, their walls flashing with bold color in vivid hieroglyphs and elaborate paintings with visions of Egyptian beliefs regarding the afterlife, a true highlight of Egypt day tours.

Hatshepsut's Temple

After that, your guide will take you to the Temple of Hatshepsut, one of Egypt's architectural wonders. This temple is hewn into the cliffs at Deir el-Bahari. It was built to honor the only female pharaoh ever to reign in Egypt, an enduring symbol of her power and legacy. The guide will continue to enthrall you with the fascinating story of Hatshepsut and the architectural genius of the temple.

At the end of your Cairo to Luxor day trip, your guide will take you to Luxor Airport for the flight back to Cairo; our representative will meet you again when you arrive in Cairo and take you back to your hotel, concluding a memorable Egypt tour experience.
