Itinerary

Day

Cairo Islamic tour to explore Islamic Cairo sights

Your Cairo day tour begins with a comfortable hotel pickup, where your tour guide will escort you in a private, air-conditioned vehicle.

Citadel of Saladin & Mosque of Muhammad Ali

The Citadel of Saladin stands first on your agenda because it is a historic Islamic fortress that commands magnificent views across all of Cairo. The powerful structure constructed in the 12th century served both as Egypt's royal residence and protected the city of Cairo from attacks. The Mosque of Muhammad Ali, which people call the Alabaster Mosque because of its white marble walls, is another stop inside the Citadel during your Cairo One-Day Tour.

Sultan Hassan Mosque

The Sultan Hassan Mosque stands as Cairo's largest and most renowned architectural mosque among all the mosques in the city. People have admired this mosque, built in the 14th-century Mamluk period, for its enormous dimensions and complex decorative details as well as its majestic Mamluk architectural design. This stop is a highlight of many Cairo day trips.

Rifai Mosque

A short walk from the previous stop leads visitors to view the historical Rifai Mosque. The early twentieth-century mosque serves as both a burial place and an architectural landmark because royals from the Egyptian royal family are buried here. It is one of the must-visit sites on Excursions in Cairo.

Khan El Khalili Bazaar

Your guided Cairo historical sites tour will conclude at Khan El Khalili Bazaar, following a visit to both mosques, since this historical market has operated since the 14th century. Traverse the tight corridors throughout the Khan El Khalili Bazaar while admiring the stalls featuring Egyptian handicrafts such as handmade jewels alongside spices and fabrics, along with memorabilia and numerous additional products. This experience is highly recommended for Cairo, Egypt day tours.

Your driver will return you to your hotel after your Egypt day tour as part of their professional service.
