Itinerary

Day 1

Giza Pyramids & Grand Egyptian Museum

A professional tour guide will pick you up from the airport exit after you arrive in Cairo, and then you will start your Cairo day tour at the Giza Pyramids, which stand on the western Nile Valley edge. These spectacular structures named Khufu (Cheops), Khafre (Chefren), and Menkaure (Mykerinos) rank among the oldest as well as most prominent architectural achievements ever built from 2620 to 2500 B.C. The Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), one of the largest and most modern exhibition spaces on Earth dedicated to showcasing Egypt's rich cultural past, is the next stop on your Cairo museum tours with an Egyptologist.

The museum contains a magnificent display of dynastic artifacts, including statues alongside royal treasures. It exhibits an excellent array of Old, Middle, and New Kingdom artifacts together with sculptures of strong pharaohs alongside elegant jewelry and common household objects that expose ancient Egyptian daily practice.

Finally, our guide will return you to the airport before your departure as part of their complete service.
